

Penalties

Policy No. 113

Policy Statement:

One who willfully continues to disregard or refuses to comply as directed with applicable civil laws, canon law, liturgical norms, or the policies and procedures of the Archdiocese shall be subject to the imposition of a just penalty depending on the circumstances and severity of the case, including but not limited to: written reprimand or censure, suspension, termination of employment, or dismissal from office.