

Stipends and Honoraria Information Form — Appendix 226A

In order to comply with Canadian income tax law, a person must declare the total of all payments received, such as stipends or honoraria (cash or near-cash), in a calendar year. Organizations are required to issue a T4A at the end of the year for the total of all payments, such as stipends or honoraria (cash or near-cash), made to an individual during the calendar year when the yearly total of such payments exceeds $500.00.
