Requirements for Baptismal Validity

1. The matter and the form:

- Application of true water – whether by pouring or immersion
- Use of the Trinitarian formula, pronounced by the same minister who simultaneously administers the water: “In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.”

2. The intention of the minister to do what the Church does (this does not necessarily mean holding the Catholic doctrine of Baptism).

3. The intent/consent of the person receiving Baptism (age of reason), or of the parents asking for Baptism for their child.

Factors that would invalidate a Baptism include:

- The use of a substance other than water
- The use of sprinkling, when the water does not clearly touch the skin of the person being baptized
- The use of a formula which changes or omits the names of the Persons of the Trinity, such as “I baptize you in the name of the Creator, the Redeemer, and the Sanctifier”
- Having one person pour the water while another person pronounces the words of the formula
- Baptism in a community whose beliefs are so far removed from Trinitarian Faith (e.g. Mormonism) that the minister does not truly intend Christian baptism
- A lack of consent to be baptized on the part of someone who has reached the age of reason.

* In cases of doubt, the pastor or his delegate is to inquire into the individual circumstances of the Baptism to verify its validity. This could be done by querying the baptized person (if baptized as an adult), the parents, the baptizing minister, or a witness.

If after an extensive inquiry, there remains a serious, positive, and probable doubt that the Baptism of a person is valid, contact the Office of Canonical Services before proceeding with Conditional Baptism.
