

Archdiocese of Edmonton Synod News

Pope Francis has launched a Synod in Rome with the theme
“For a Synodal Church: communion, participation, and mission.”

Download the postcard here and share widely.

The Holy Father is calling everyone to strengthen the mission of Christ.

In layman’s terminology,

what is this Synod all about?

Check out this short six minute video for a clear explanation with pictures.

How do I keep up to date?

- Visit our website and follow us on social media for the latest update on all things Synod!
- Stay informed and join this very important faith journey. Subscribe to THE WINDOW
- Use this link or QR code to access the Archdiocese of Edmonton on line submission tool for submitting your Synod Feedback.

Get involved...

- Download the questions so that you can participate in the conversation individually or as part of a Listening Session.
- Connect with your local Synod Coordinator and/or Listening Leaders to find out how your local parish, organization, ministry, school, group, community Synod events.
- Your Archdiocese of Edmonton is hosting Listening Sessions, along with a variety of training and information sessions: www.caedm.ca/synod
- Pope Francis, through this Synod on Synodality, is asking all people of God to “journey together,” to embark courageously by speaking and listening to one another in the spirit of communion and collaboration. Your participation is incredibly important.

Need further help and assistance?

Contact your local Synod Coordinator or Dr. Eugenia Pagnotta-Kowalczyk, Synod Coordinator for the Archdiocese of Edmonton.

To read more about this Synod visit the Vatican website and download the Preparatory Document, Vademecum, and Prayer. These are available in different languages here: Synod 2021 - 2023

Archdiocese of Edmonton Synod News

Pope Francis has launched a Synod in Rome with the theme
“For a Synodal Church: communion, participation, and mission.”

Download the postcard and share widely:

<https://caedm.ca/wp-content/uploads/2022/02/synod-postcard.pdf>

The Holy Father is calling everyone to strengthen the mission of Christ.

In layman’s terminology,

what is this Synod all about?

Check out this short six minute for a clear explanation with pictures:

<https://youtu.be/15lAktuejwo>

How do I keep up to date?

- Visit www.caedm.ca/synod and follow us on social media for the latest update on all things Synod!
- Stay informed and join this very important faith journey. Subscribe to the Window at www.caedm.ca/window
- Follow <https://redcap.cru.ucalgary.ca/surveys/index.php?s=X4X83PDMAC> or use QR code to access the Archdiocese of Edmonton on line submission tool for submitting your Synod Feedback.

Get involved...

- Download questions at www.caedm.ca/wp-content/uploads/2021/12/Synod-Questions-Phase1-DiocesanConsultation.pdf so that you can participate in the conversation individually or as part of a Listening Session.
- Connect with your local Synod Coordinator and/or Listening Leaders to find out how your local parish, organization, ministry, school, group, community Synod events.
- Your Archdiocese of Edmonton is hosting Listening Sessions, along with a variety of training and information sessions: www.caedm.ca/synod
- Pope Francis, through this Synod on Synodality, is asking all people of God to “journey together,” to embark courageously by speaking and listening to one another in the spirit of communion and collaboration. Your participation is incredibly important.

Need further help and assistance?

Contact your local Synod Coordinator or
Dr. Eugenia Pagnotta-Kowalczyk, Synod Coordinator for the Archdiocese of Edmonton.

To read more about this Synod visit the Vatican website and download the Preparatory Document, Vademecum, and Prayer. These are available in different languages here: www.synod.va/en.html

